Code of Consumer Rights and Responsibilities

Insurers (including Lloyd's Underwriters), along with the brokers and agents who sell home, auto and business insurance are committed to safeguarding your rights both when you shop for insurance and when you submit a claim following a loss. Your rights include the right to be informed fully, to be treated fairly, to timely complaint resolution, and to privacy. These rights are grounded in the contract between you and your insurer and the insurance laws of your province. With rights, however, come responsibilities including, for example, the expectation that you will provide complete and accurate information to your insurer. Your policy outlines other important responsibilities. Insurers and their distribution networks, and governments also have important roles to play in ensuring that your rights are protected.

Right to Be Informed

You can expect to access clear information about your policy, your coverage, and the claims settlement process. You have the right to an easy-to-understand explanation of how insurance works and how it will meet your needs. You also have a right to know how insurers calculate price based on relevant facts. Under normal circumstances, insurers will advise an insurance customer or the customer's intermediary of changes to, or the cancellation of a policy within a reasonable prescribed period prior to the expiration of the policy, if the customer provides information required for determining renewal terms of the policy within the time prescribed, which could vary by province, but is usually 45 days prior to expiry of the policy.

You have the right to ask who is providing compensation to your broker or agent for the sale of your insurance. Your broker or agent will provide information detailing for you how he or she is paid, by whom, and in what ways.

You have a right to be told about insurers' compensation arrangements with their distribution networks. You have a right to ask the broker or agent with whom you deal for details of how and by whom it is being paid. Brokers and agents are committed to providing information relating to ownership, financing, and other relevant facts.

Responsibility to Ask Questions and Share Information

To safeguard your right to purchase appropriate coverage at a competitive price, you should ask questions about your policy so that you understand what it covers and what your obligations are under it. You can access information through one-on-one meetings with your broker or agent. You have the option to shop the marketplace for the combination of coverages and service levels that best suits your insurance needs. To maintain your protection against loss, you must promptly inform your broker or agent of any change in your circumstances.

Right to Complaint Resolution

Insurers, their brokers and agents are committed to high standards of customer service. If you have a complaint about the service you have received, you have a right to access Lloyd's Underwriters' complaint resolution process for Canada. Your agent or broker can provide you with information about how you can ensure that your complaint is heard and promptly handled. Consumers may also contact their respective provincial insurance regulator for information. Lloyd's is a member of an independent complaint resolution office, the General Insurance OmbudService.

Responsibility to Resolve Disputes

You should always enter into the dispute resolution process in good faith, provide required information in a timely manner, and remain open to recommendations made by independent observers as part of that process.

Right to Professional Service

You have the right to deal with insurance professionals who exhibit a high ethical standard, which includes acting with honesty, integrity, fairness and skill. Brokers and agents must exhibit extensive knowledge of the product, its coverages and its limitations in order to best serve you.

Right to Privacy

Because it is important for you to disclose any and all information required by an insurer to provide the insurance coverage that best suits you, you have the right to know that your information will be used for the purpose set out in the privacy statement made available to you by your broker, agent or insurance representative. This information will not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted by law. You should know that Lloyd's Underwriters are subject to Canada's privacy laws - with respect to their business in Canada.

If no other insurer defends, We will have the right to defend but not the obligation to do so. If We elect to defend, We will be entitled to all the Insured's rights against all those other insurers. When this Policy is excess over other insurance, We will pay only Our share of the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of:
 - (a) The total amount that all such other insurance would pay for the loss in the absence of this Policy; and
 - (b) The total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance.

We will share the remaining loss, if any, with any other insurance that is not described in the Excess Insurance provision and was not bought specifically to apply in excess of the Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations of this Policy.

c. Method of Sharing

If all of the other insurance permits contribution by equal shares, We will follow this method also. Under this approach each insurer contributes equal amounts until it has paid its applicable limit of insurance or none of the loss remains, whichever comes first.

If any of the other insurance does not permit contribution by equal shares, We will contribute by limits. Under this method, each insurer's share is based on the ratio of its applicable limit of insurance to the total applicable limits of insurance of all insurers.

19. Sanction Limitation

It is understood and agreed that We will not be deemed to provide cover and shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose Us to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade and economic sanctions, laws, or regulations of Canada, United Kingdom, European Union or United States of America.

20. Separation Of Insureds, Cross Liability

Except with respect to the Limits of Insurance, and any rights or duties specifically assigned to the first Named Insured, this Policy applies:

- b. Separately to each Insured against whom claim is made or suit is brought.

21. Severability Of Interests

Where there is more than one Insured, nothing herein shall operate to increase Our liability, as set forth elsewhere in this Policy, beyond the amount or amounts for which We would be liable if there had been only one Insured.

22. Subrogation

We shall be subrogated to the extent of any payment under this Policy to all of Your rights of recovery against any person or business entity. You shall execute all papers required and shall do everything necessary to secure such rights. You must do nothing after loss to impair those rights. At Our request, You will bring legal proceedings or transfer those rights to Us and help Us enforce them. However, the coverage granted under this Policy shall not be prejudiced in the event that You are unable to transfer such rights to Us and further We shall have no right of subrogation against any Insured under this Policy.

23. Transfer Of Your Rights And Duties Under This Policy

Your rights and duties under this Policy may not be transferred without Our written consent except in the case of death of an individual Insured or involuntary transfer by operation of law in the case of an Insured which is not an individual. Any such transfer will be effective only upon Our decision, which shall be at Our sole discretion.

If You die, or there is an involuntary transfer by operation of law, Your rights and duties will be transferred to Your legal representative but only while acting within the scope of duties as Your legal representative. Until Your legal representative is appointed, anyone having lawful temporary custody of Your property will have Your rights and duties but only with respect to that property.

REPAIR OR REPLACEMENT

- (6) Except where an appraisal has been made, the Insurer, instead of making payment, may, within a reasonable time, repair, rebuild or replace the property damaged or lost with other of the like or kind and quality if within seven days after the receipt of the proof of loss, it gives written notice of its intention to do so.

- (8) In the event of the disagreement as to the nature and extent of the repairs and replacement required, or as to their adequacy, if effected, or as to the amount payable in respect of any loss or damage, those questions shall be determined by appraisal as provided under THE INSURANCE ACT before there can be recovery under this contract, whether the right to recover under this contract is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions. WHERE ACTION MAY BE BROUGHT

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

- (3) Every action or proceeding against the Insurer under this contract in respect of loss or damage to the automobile shall be commenced within one year next after the happening of the loss and not afterwards, and in respect of loss or damage to persons or property shall be commenced within one year next after the cause of action arose and not afterwards.

WHO MAY GIVE NOTICE AND PROOFS OF CLAIM

7. Notice of claim may be given and proofs of claim may be made by the agent of the Insured named in this contract in case of absence or inability of the Insured to give the notice or make proof, such absence or inability being satisfactorily accounted for or, in the like case or if the Insured refuses to do so, by a person to whom any part of the insurance money is payable.

The aggregate limit for such coverages shall not be reduced by the application of such deductibles.
 2. The deductible amount applies as the result of any one wrongful act, regardless of the number of persons or business entities which sustain damages because of that wrongful act.
 3. The terms of this Policy, including those with respect to:
 - a. Our right and duty to defend any claim or suit seeking those compensatory damages and defence expenses; and
 - b. Your duties in the event of an wrongful act,apply irrespective of the application of the deductible amount.
 4. We may pay any part, or all, of the deductible amount to effect settlement of any claim or suit and, upon notification of the action taken, You shall promptly reimburse Us for such part of the deductible amount as has been paid by Us.
- E. For the purposes of the coverage provided by this Endorsement, Conditions 9. and 14. of PART V - COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY CONDITIONS are deleted and replaced by the following:

9. Duties In The Event Of A Wrongful Act, Claim Or Suit

 - iii. The nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the wrongful act.

- b. If a claim is made or suit is brought against any Insured, You must:
 - i. Immediately record the specifics of the claim or suit and the date received; and
 - ii. Notify Us in writing as soon as practicable of the claim or suit.

- e. No Insured will, except at their own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation or incur any expense without Our consent.

14. Other Insurance

If other valid and collectible insurance is available to the Insured for a loss We cover under this Endorsement, Our obligations are limited as follows:

a. Primary Insurance

This Policy is primary except when Paragraph b. below applies. If this Policy is primary, Our obligations are not affected unless any of the other insurance is also primary. Then, We will share with all that other insurance by the method described in Paragraph c. below.

b. Excess Insurance

This Policy is excess over any other insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis that is insurance purchased by You to cover Your liability with respect to Errors and Omissions or similar coverage.

When this Policy is excess, We will have no duty to defend any claim or suit that any other insurer has a duty to defend. If no other insurer defends, We will have the right to defend but not the obligation to do so. If We elect to defend, We will be entitled to all the Insured's rights against all those other insurers. When this Policy is excess over other insurance, We will pay only Our share of the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of:

- i. The total amount that all such other insurance would pay for the loss in the absence of this Policy; and
- ii. The total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance.

We will share the remaining loss, if any, with any other insurance that is not described in the Excess Insurance provision and was not bought specifically to apply in excess of the Limits of Insurance stated in the Declarations of this Policy.

c. Method of Sharing

If all of the other insurance permits contribution by equal shares, We will follow this method also. Under this approach each insurer contributes equal amounts until it has paid its applicable limit of insurance or none of the loss remains, whichever comes first.

If any of the other insurance does not permit contribution by equal shares, We will contribute by limits. Under this method, each insurer's share is based on the ratio of its applicable limit of insurance to the total applicable limits of insurance of all insurers.

F. For the purposes of coverage provided by this Endorsement, the following are added to PART VI – DEFINITIONS:

Defence expenses means those reasonable and necessary expenses that result from the investigation, settlement and defence of a specific claim or suit, including:

- e. All court costs taxed against the Insured in the suit;
- f. Prejudgment interest awarded against the Insured on that part of the judgment We pay. If We make an offer to pay the applicable limit of insurance, We will not pay any prejudgment interest based on that period of time after the offer;
- g. All interest on the full amount of any judgment that accrues after entry of the judgment and before We have paid, offered to pay, or deposited in court the part of the judgment that is within the applicable limit of insurance.

Interrelated wrongful acts means all causally connected wrongful acts arising out of the same or substantially the same facts, circumstances or allegations which are the subject of or the basis for any claim or suit.

Wrongful act means:

- a. Any actual or alleged negligent error, misstatement, or misleading statement by an Insured;
- b. Any actual or alleged negligent act, omission, neglect or breach of duty by an Insured. A wrongful act does not include any activity of an insured who is a member of a licensed or certified profession where such activity is related to the practice of such profession, whether on a voluntary basis or otherwise. A wrongful act includes interrelated wrongful acts.

All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.

For the purpose of calculating the total value of the property for the application of Co-Insurance, value reporting and for loss adjustment, the following valuation basis applies:

- a. on raw stock, supplies and other merchandise not manufactured by You – the actual cash value at the time the loss or damage occurs but in no event to exceed what it would then cost to repair or replace with material of like kind and quality;
- b. on goods in process – the value of raw materials and labour expended plus the proper proportion of overhead charges;
- c. on unsold finished stock You manufacture – the price the goods could have been sold for on the day of the loss had no loss occurred, less discounts and expenses You otherwise would have had.
- d. on property of others in Your custody or control for the purpose of performing work thereon – the amount for which You are liable but in no event to exceed the actual cash value at the time and place of loss plus allowance for labour and materials expended to such time;
- e. on tenant's improvements and records – as defined in paragraphs: a. and b. of Clause 4 Special Basis of Settlement;

- g. should EDP insured by this Policy suffer physical loss or damage insured by this Policy, then the basis of valuation shall be the cost of the blank media plus the costs of copying the data from back-up or from originals of a previous generation. These costs will not include research and engineering nor any costs of recreating, gathering or assembling such data. If the media is not repaired, replaced or restored the basis of valuation shall be the cost of the blank media. However this Policy does not insure any amount pertaining to the value of such data to the Assured or any other party, even if such data cannot be recreated, gathered or assembled.

4. SPECIAL BASIS OF SETTLEMENT

- a. Tenant's improvements: Our liability shall be determined as follows:
 - i. if repaired or replaced with due diligence and dispatch, the amount actually and necessarily expended, but in no event exceeding the actual cash value of the tenant's improvements immediately prior to the time of destruction or damage;
 - ii. if not repaired or replaced with due diligence and dispatch after such loss, that portion of the original cost of the damaged or destroyed tenant's improvements which the unexpired term of the lease at the time of loss bears to the period(s) from the date(s) such tenant's improvements were made to the expiration date of the lease.
- b. Records: Our liability for loss or damage to:
 - i. books of accounts, drawings, card index systems and other records, other than as described in ii. below, shall not exceed the cost of blank books, blank pages or other materials, plus the cost of labour for actually transcribing or copying said records;

Whichever of the above is applicable shall be the basis to be adopted for the purpose of applying Co-Insurance.

5. SEASONAL VACANCY WARRANTY

Violation of the conditions set forth in this warranty shall render coverage provided by this policy null and void.

PART II - BUSINESS INCOME FORM

This Form applies only where an amount of insurance is specified on the Declarations Page.

1. INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

We will pay for Your loss of business income, Your incurred necessary extra expense, or loss of rental value during the Period of Indemnity resulting from covered direct physical loss to a scheduled risk location, subject to the provisions and limitations as applicable to the coverage specified on the Declarations Page. The covered direct physical loss must occur at a scheduled risk location that has a limit specified on the Declarations Page.

2. LIMIT OF INSURANCE

The most We will pay under this Form in any one (1) occurrence is;

- a. the limit specified for each scheduled risk location, or
- b. if written on a blanket basis, the applicable limit of insurance stated on the Declarations Page.

3. PERIOD OF INDEMNITY

Period of Indemnity means the length of time that Your business income continues to be affected as a direct result of direct physical loss or damage to property at the described premises caused by or resulting from a Covered Cause of Loss. The Period of Indemnity ends no later than the number of months shown in the Business Income Declarations. If the number of consecutive months is not shown on the Declarations Page, 12 consecutive months shall apply.

If You do not plan to resume Your normal business operations, the Period of Indemnity means the shortest of the following periods beginning with the date of covered direct physical loss at the scheduled risk location:

- a. the time that would have been required to resume Your normal business operations; or
- b. the number of consecutive months shown on the Declarations Page or 12 consecutive months if not shown.

If damage involved was to a building being built or altered, You can choose to have the period for which We will pay lost business income, incurred necessary extra expense or lost rental value, as applicable to the coverage specified on the Declarations Page, start on the date You would have begun operations in the building, instead of the date of the damage. The time limitations described above will apply, no matter when the period begins.

The Period of Indemnity is not lengthened for any increased amount of time needed due to the enforcement of any ordinance, regulation or law:

- a. governing the use, construction, repair or demolition of any property;
- b. requiring You or others to clean up pollutants.

The Period of Indemnity is not affected by the expiration date of this policy.

4. DEDUCTIBLE

- a. We are liable for the amount by which Your loss of business income, incurred necessary extra expense or loss of rental value, as applicable to the coverage specified on the Declarations Page, resulting from covered direct physical loss exceeds the amount of the Deductible specified on the Declarations Page in any one occurrence.
- b. If a waiting period deductible is specified on the Declarations Page, Our liability for each interruption of business resulting from covered direct physical loss begins only when the period of interruption exceeds the number of consecutive hours as specified on the Declarations Page and We are liable only for that part of the loss in excess of the number of hours specified on the Declarations Page. The waiting period does not apply to extra expense.

5. EXCLUSIONS

This Part 2 – Business Income Form does not cover the following losses and expenses:

- a. the cost of repairing or replacing the property, or the cost of research or other costs of replacing or restoring any type of recorded material. However, if these costs are necessary to speed up Your return to normal operations, We will cover them to the extent that they reduce Your loss;
- b. any increase in Your loss that results because strikers or other persons have interfered with repairs to damaged property or with any resumption of operations;
- c. any increase in Your loss that results from the loss of a lease, license, other contract or order. However, if the loss of the lease, license, other contract or order is the direct result of an interruption of business due to damage to property at Your scheduled risk location, We will cover Your loss of business income, incurred necessary extra expense or loss of rental value, as applicable to the coverage specified on the Declarations Page, only during the time that would have been required to repair, rebuild or replace the damaged property;
- d. any loss caused by or resulting from damage to or destruction of finished stock or the time required to reproduce finished stock;
- e. any loss due to fines or damages for breach of contract for late or non-completion of orders, or for any penalties of whatever nature; or
- f. any other consequential or indirect loss.

6. COINSURANCE

If no Coinsurance percentage is shown on the Declarations Page, no less than ninety (90) percent will be applicable, unless otherwise stated.

We will not pay the full amount of any business income loss if the Limit of Insurance for business income is less than:

- a. The Coinsurance percentage shown for Business Income in the Declarations; multiplied by
- b. The sum of:
 - i. The net income (net profit or net loss before income taxes); and
 - ii. Operating expenses, including payroll expenses; that would have been earned or incurred (had no loss occurred) by Your operations at the described premises for the 12 months following the inception, or last previous anniversary date, of this policy (whichever is later.)

Instead, We will determine the most We will pay using the following steps:

- i. Multiply the net income and operating expense for the 12 months following the inception, or last previous anniversary date, of this policy by the Coinsurance percentage;
- ii. Divide the Limit of Insurance for the described premises by the figure determined in step i; and
- iii. Multiply the total amount of loss by the figure determined in step ii.

We will pay the amount determined in step iii. or the Limit of Insurance, whichever is less. For the remainder, You will either have to rely on other insurance or absorb the loss yourself.

In determining operating expenses for the purpose of applying the Coinsurance condition, the following expenses shall be deducted from the total of all operating expenses:

- a. Prepaid freight – outgoing;
- b. Returns and allowances;
- c. Discounts;
- d. Bad debts;
- e. Collection expenses;
- f. Cost of raw stock and factory supplies consumed (including transportation charges);
- g. Cost of merchandise sold (including transportation charges);
- h. Cost of other supplies consumed (including transportation charges);
- i. Cost of services purchased from outsiders (not employees) to resell, that do not continue under contract;
- j. Power, heat and refrigeration expenses that do not continue under contract;
- k. All ordinary payroll expenses or the amount of payroll expense excluded; and
- l. Special deductions for mining properties (royalties, unless specifically included in coverage; actual depletion, commonly known as unit or cost depletion, but not percentage depletion; welfare and retirement fund charges, based on tonnage; hired trucks).

This condition does not apply to extra expense coverage.

As respects Rental Value coverage, We shall not be liable for a greater proportion of any loss than the amount of insurance specified on the Declarations Page bears to the Coinsurance percentage specified on the Declarations Page of the rental value. If no Coinsurance percentage is shown on the Declarations Page, ninety (90) percent will be applied, unless otherwise stated.

7. ORDINARY PAYROLL LIMITATION OR EXCLUSION

We'll only cover ordinary payroll expenses for the number of days shown on the Declarations Page following the date of covered direct physical loss at the scheduled risk location. Ordinary payroll expenses are excluded if 0 days is shown or it is blank.

When We calculate Your required amount for coinsurance, We'll only include those ordinary payroll expenses which are incurred during the number of days shown in the Declarations. If Your ordinary payroll expenses vary during the year, We'll use the period when Your ordinary payroll expenses are the greatest.

Payroll expenses include:

- a. Payroll;
- b. Special compensation such as bonuses and other incentive compensation;
- c. Employee benefits, if directly related to payroll;
- d. Union dues You pay; and
- e. Workers' compensation premiums.

CONDITIONS

The following Conditions apply to coverage provided by the Business Income Form. The General Policy Terms and Conditions as well as The General Property Terms and Conditions contained in the policy to which these Conditions are added are applicable except where they are in conflict with any portion of these Conditions, in which case these Conditions will apply.

1. VALUATION

a. Business Income Valuation:

- i. Applicable only to business income coverage, We will:
- ii. establish the amount of Your net income before the covered direct physical loss occurred. This will include the reduction in any rents that You would have normally received;
- iii. establish the likely amount of Your net income if no loss or damage had occurred. This will consider the changes in the commercial environment during the Period of Indemnity that would have affected Your net income, but this will not include any net income that would likely have been earned as a result of an increase in Your business operations due to favourable commercial environment conditions caused by the impact of the covered direct physical loss on customers or other businesses;
- iv. consider expenses, including payroll expenses, that are required so that Your business can return to operations with the same quality of service that existed just prior to the covered direct physical loss;
- v. add the extra expense You necessarily incur to continue or resume Your business operations as nearly normal as possible.

b. Extra Expense Valuation:

Applicable to extra expense coverage:

The amount of extra expense will be determined based on:

- i. all expenses that exceed the normal operating expenses that would have been incurred by Your business operations during the Period of Indemnity if no covered direct physical loss had occurred. We will deduct:
 - (a) the salvage value that remains of any property bought for temporary use during the Period of Indemnity once Your business operations have resumed; and
 - (b) any costs and expenses that are paid for by other insurance;
- ii. all necessarily-incurred expenses that reduce Your business income loss that otherwise would not have been incurred.

c. Rental Value Valuation:

Applicable only to rental value coverage, We will:

- i. establish the amount by which Your rental income has been reduced solely due to covered direct physical loss;
- ii. subtract those costs and expenses that do not necessarily continue during the Period of Indemnity.

2. APPRAISAL

If You and We disagree in the amount of net income and operating expense or the amount of loss payable under this Coverage Form, either may make written demand for an appraisal of the loss. In this event, each party will select a competent and impartial appraiser.

The appraisers will state separately the amount of net income and operating expense or amount of loss. If the appraisers fail to agree, they will select an umpire and submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two will be binding.

If the appraisers cannot agree on an umpire, either party may request that a judge of a court having jurisdiction select the umpire.

Each party will:

- a. Pay its chosen appraiser; and
- b. Bear the expenses of the appraisal and of the umpire equally.

3. YOUR OBLIGATIONS TO MINIMIZE LOSS

You have certain additional obligations under this Form and You may not be covered for a loss if You do not meet these obligations:

- a. You must resume operations and stop all extra expenses as soon as possible and to whatever extent is possible, as long as this will not increase Your loss.
- b. You must also make use of Your merchandise, stock, or other property at Your premises or at other locations if it would reduce Your loss.

If You fail to take any of these steps to reduce Your loss, We will reduce the amount We will pay for Your loss by the amount which could have been saved.

4. PREMIUM ADJUSTMENT

(This clause applies only if this Form is on a Reporting Basis and an adjustment rate is shown on the Declarations Page)

Applicable only to business income coverage.

a. Adjustment Requirements

The premium stated on the Declarations Page for Business Income coverage is provisional, subject to the following conditions:

- i. The policy period is annual.
- ii. Within 2 months of the inception date of this policy period You submit to Us a separate fully completed and signed Markel Business Income Worksheet for each scheduled risk location.
- iii. Your amount of insurance specified for each scheduled risk location on the Declarations Page for Business Income equals not less than:
 - (a) the Estimated Total Business Income Amount after adjustment for any Period of Indemnity not equal to 12 months for the current policy period on the Markel Business Income Worksheet; plus:
 - (b) the Estimated Value of Total Extra Expense Amount for the current policy period on the Worksheet.
- iv. Within 12 months of the expiry date of this policy period You submit to Us an updated fully completed and signed Markel Business Income Worksheet for each scheduled risk location.

b. Adjustment Determination

If You comply with all the preceding conditions, We will determine if any return premium is due to You based on the following calculation. For each scheduled risk location:

- i. the amount of insurance specified on the Declarations Page for Business Income for the scheduled risk location; subtract:
- ii. the extra expense component as per a. iii. (b) above; subtract:
- iii. the Actual Total Business Income Amount after adjustment for any Period of Indemnity not equal to 12 months for the Actual Policy Period (column 1) on the most current Worksheet for the scheduled risk location. We will use the Markel Business Income Worksheet from Your financial year that is most nearly concurrent with the annual term of this policy period.

If the sum calculated is zero or negative then no return premium is due to You. If the sum calculated is positive then return premium is due to You.

c. Adjustment Calculation

If the sum calculated from ii. above is positive, We will allow in respect of the difference a return premium calculated as follows:

- i. the sum calculated as per ii. above; multiplied by:
- ii. the rate per $100 amount of insurance for Business Income coverage at the scheduled risk location, except that
- iii. the return premium may not exceed 50% of the deposit premium.

PART III - INLAND MARINE FORM

This Form insures the following property but only those Sections for which an amount of insurance is specified on the Declarations Page.

It is agreed that We shall cease to insure such items at the end of the said ninety (90) days if they are not reported within that time. This extension of insurance shall be limited to the Newly Acquired Equipment limit shown in the Declarations Page or, if no such limit be shown, to a maximum recovery of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) with respect to any one loss or series of losses arising out of the same occurrence.

3. Co-insurance

This clause applies separately to each item as scheduled on the Schedule of Insured Property in any one occurrence and only where the total loss exceeds the lesser of 5% of the applicable amount of insurance or $10,000.

You shall maintain insurance provided by this section on the property insured to the extent of at least the amount produced by multiplying the actual cash value of the property by the coinsurance percentage specified on the Declarations Page, or one hundred (100) percent should no co-insurance percentage be specified on the Declarations Page, and failing so to do, shall only be entitled to recover that portion of any loss that the amount of insurance in force at the time of loss bears to the amount of insurance required to be maintained by this clause.

- a. property in course of construction, installation, reconstruction or repair

GENERAL CONDITIONS – QUEBEC

To comply with the Civil Code of Quebec, this policy is subject to these General Conditions. Reference to Civil Code articles in some instances is for easier reading only and should not be construed as exact quotations of the wording of such articles. These General Conditions apply to all coverages included in this policy except where noted as inapplicable. If there is conflict between these General Conditions and any other provisions in this policy, such conflict will be settled in favour of the insured.

1 STATEMENTS

1.1 Representation of risk (Article 2408)

The client, and the insured if the insurer requires it, is bound to represent all the facts known to him which are likely to materially influence an insurer in the setting of the premium, the appraisal of the risk or the decision to cover it, but he is not bound to represent facts known to the insurer or which from their notoriety he is presumed to know, except in answer to inquiries. The client means the person submitting an insurance application.

1.2 Material change in risk (Articles 2466 and 2467)

The insured shall promptly notify the insurer of any change that increases the risks stipulated in the policy and that results from events within his control if it is likely to materially influence an insurer in setting the rate of the premium, appraising the risk or deciding to continue to insure it.

On being notified of any material change in the risk, the insurer may cancel the contract or propose, in writing, a new rate of premium. Unless the new premium is accepted and paid by the insured within thirty days of the proposal, the policy ceases to be in force.

1.3 Misrepresentations or concealment (Articles 2410, 2411, and 2466)

Any misrepresentation or concealment of relevant facts mentioned in section 1.1 and in the first paragraph of section 1.2 by the client or the insured nullifies the contract at the instance of the insurer, even in respect of losses not connected with the risk so misrepresented or concealed.

Unless the bad faith of the client or of the insured is established or unless it is established that the insurer would not have covered the risk if he had known the true facts, the insurer remains liable towards the insured for such proportion of the indemnity as the premium he collected bears to the premium he should have collected.

1.4 Warranties (Article 2412)

Any increase in risk resulting from a breach of warranty suspends the coverage until accepted by the insurer or until such breach has been remedied by the insured.

2 GENERAL PROVISIONS

2.1 Insurable Interest (Articles 2481 and 2484)

(Applicable only to property insurance)

A person has an insurable interest in a property where the loss or deterioration of the property may cause him direct and immediate damage. It is necessary that the insurable interest exist at the time of the loss but not necessary that the same interest have existed throughout the duration of the contract. The insurance of a property in which the insured has no insurable interest is null.

2.2 Changes (Article 2405)

The terms of this policy shall not be waived or changed except by endorsement.

2.3 Assignment (Articles 2475 and 2476)

This policy may be assigned only with the consent of the insurer and in favour of a person who has an insurable interest in the insured property.

Upon the death or bankruptcy of the insured or the assignment of his interest in the insurance to a co-insured, the insurance continues in favour of the heir, trustee in bankruptcy or remaining insured, subject to his performing the obligations that were incumbent upon the insured.

2.4 Books and records

The Insurer and its authorized representatives shall have the right to examine the insured's books and records related to the subject matter of this insurance at any time during the period of this policy and the three subsequent years.

2.5 Inspection

The insurer and its authorized representatives shall have the right but are not obligated to make inspections of the risk, inform the insured of the conditions found and recommend changes. Any inspections, surveys, findings or recommendations relate only to insurability and the premiums to be charged. They shall not constitute a warranty that the premises, property or operations are safe or healthful or comply with laws, codes or standards.

2.6 Currency

All limits of insurance, premiums and other amounts as expressed in this policy are in Canadian currency.

3 LOSSES

3.1 Notice of loss (Article 2470)

The insured shall notify the insurer of any loss which may give rise to an indemnity, as soon as he becomes aware of it. Any interested person may give such notice.

In the event that the requirement set out in the preceding paragraph is not fully complied with, all rights to compensation shall be forfeited by the insured where such non-compliance has caused prejudice to the insurer.

3.2 Information to be provided (Article 2471)

The insured shall inform the insurer as soon as possible of all the circumstances surrounding the loss, including its probable cause, the nature and extent of the damage, the location of the insured property, the rights of third parties, and any concurrent insurance; he shall also furnish him with vouchers and swear or warrant to the truth of the information.

Where, for a serious reason, the insured is unable to fulfil such obligation, he is entitled to a reasonable time in which to do so. If the insured fails to fulfil his obligation, any interested person may do so on his behalf.

In addition, the insured shall forthwith send to the insurer a copy of any notice, letter, subpoena or writ, or document received in connection with a claim.

3.3 False representation (Article 2472)

Any deceitful representation entails the loss or the right of the person making it to any indemnity in respect of the risk to which the representation relates.

However, if the occurrence of the event insured against entails the loss of both movable and immovable property or of both property for occupational use and personal property, forfeiture is incurred only with respect to the class of property to which the representation relates.

3.4 Intentional Fault (Article 2464)

The insurer is never liable to compensate for injury resulting from the insured's intentional fault.

Where there is more than one insured, the obligation of coverage remains in respect of those insureds who have not committed an intentional fault.

Where the insurer is liable for injury caused by a person for whose acts the insured is liable, the obligation of coverage subsists regardless of the nature or gravity of that person's fault.

3.5 Notice to police (applicable to property insurance only)

The insured must promptly give notice to the police of any loss caused by vandalism, theft or attempted theft or other criminal act.

3.6 Safeguarding and examination of property (Article 2495)

(applicable to property insurance only)

At the expense of the insurer, the insured must take all reasonable steps to prevent further loss or damage to the insured property and any further loss or damage resulting directly or indirectly from the insured's failure to take such action shall not be recoverable.

The insured may not abandon the damaged property if there is no agreement to that effect. The insured shall facilitate the salvage and inspection of the insured property by the insurer.

He shall, in particular, permit the insurer and his representatives to visit the premises and examine the insured property before repairing, removing or modifying the damaged property, unless so required to safeguard the property.

3.7 Admission of liability and cooperation

The insured shall cooperate with the insurer in the processing of all claims. (The following two paragraphs are applicable to liability insurance only: article 2504)

No transaction made without the consent of the insurer may be set up against him.

The insured shall not admit any liability nor settle or attempt to settle any claim, except at his own risk.

3.8 Right of Action (Articles 2501 and 2502)

(applicable to liability insurance only)

An injured third person may bring an action directly against the insured or against the insurer, or against both. The option chosen in this respect by the third person injured does not deprive him of his other recourses.

The insurer may set up against the injured third person any grounds he could have invoked against the insured at the time of loss, but not grounds pertaining to facts that occurred after the loss; the insurer has a right of action against the insured in respect of facts that occurred after the loss.

STANDARD MORTGAGE CLAUSE

It is hereby provided and agreed that:

- a. Breach of Conditions by Mortgagor, Owner or Occupant – This insurance and every documented renewal thereof – as to the interest of the Mortgagee only therein – is and shall be in force notwithstanding any act, neglect, omission, or misrepresentation attributable to the mortgagor, owner or occupant of the property insured, including transfer of interest, any vacancy or non-occupancy, or the occupation of the property for purposes more hazardous than specified in the description of the risk; provided always that the Mortgagee shall notify forthwith the Insurer(s) (if known) of any vacancy or non-occupancy extending beyond thirty(30) consecutive days, or of any transfer of interest or increase of hazard that shall come to his knowledge; and that every increase of hazard (not permitted by the policy) shall be paid for by the Mortgagee – on reasonable demand – from the date such hazard existed, according to the established scale of rates for the acceptance of such increased hazard, during the continuance of this insurance.
- b. Right of Subrogation – Whenever the Insurer(s) pay the Mortgagee any loss award under this Policy and claims that – as to the Mortgagor or Owner – no liability therefore existed, it shall be legally subrogated to all rights of the Mortgagee against the Insured; but any subrogation shall be limited to the amount of such loss payment and shall be subordinate and subject to the basic right of the Mortgagee to recover the full amount of its mortgage equity in priority to the Insurer(s), or the Insurer(s) may at its option pay the Mortgagee all amounts due or to become due under the mortgage or on the security thereof, and shall thereupon receive a full assignment and transfer of the mortgage together with all securities held as collateral to the mortgage debt.
- c. Other Insurance – If there be other valid and collectible insurance upon the property with loss payable to the Mortgagee – at law or in equity – then any amount payable thereunder shall be taken into account in determining the amount payable to the Mortgagee.
- d. Who May Give Proof of loss – In the absence of the Insured, or the inability, refusal or neglect of the Insured to give notice of loss or deliver the required Proof of Loss under the policy, then the Mortgagee may give the notice upon becoming aware of the loss and deliver as soon as practicable the Proof of Loss.
- e. Termination – The term of this mortgage clause coincides with the term of the Policy: PROVIDED ALWAYS that the Insurer(s) reserve the right to cancel the policy as provided by Statutory provision but agree that the Insurer(s) will neither terminate nor alter the policy to the prejudice of the Mortgagee without the notice stipulated in such Statutory provision.
- f. *Termination – The term of this mortgage clause coincides with the term of the Policy: PROVIDED ALWAYS that the Insurer(s) reserves the right to cancel the policy as provided by Articles 2567 and 2568 of the Civil Code of the Province of Quebec, but agrees that the Insurer(s) will neither terminate nor alter the policy to the prejudice of the Mortgagee without fifteen (15) days' notice to the Mortgagee by registered letter.
- g. Foreclosure – Should title or ownership to said property become vested in the Mortgagee and/or assigns as owner or purchaser under foreclosure or otherwise, this insurance shall continue until expiry or cancellation for the benefit of said Mortgagee and/or assigns.

Subject to the terms of this mortgage clause (and these shall supersede any policy provisions in conflict therewith but only as to the interest of the mortgagee), loss under this Policy is made payable to the Mortgagee.

PART VIII - PROPERTY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All Parts and Coverage Forms included in this policy are subject to the following General Property Terms and Conditions except where these conditions are either modified or supplemented by the Coverage Forms, riders or endorsement(s) attached, or where this policy and its forms are in conflict with the Civil Code of the Province of Quebec. Where the terms and conditions of this policy and its forms attached are in conflict with the Civil Code, such terms and conditions are amended to conform to the Civil Code. No term or condition of this Policy shall be deemed to be waived in whole or in part by Us unless the waiver is clearly expressed in writing signed by a person authorized for that purpose by Us.

1. CLAIMS AGAINST THIRD PARTIES

In the event of any loss of or damage to the property covered under the terms of this policy, You must immediately make a claim in writing against the carrier(s), bailee(s) or others involved.

2. ABANDONMENT

There can be no abandonment to Us of any property.

3. IMPAIRMENT OF RECOVERY RIGHTS

Any act or agreement by You before or after a loss or damage whereby any of Your rights to recover in whole or in part for loss or damage to property covered under the terms of this agreement against any carrier, bailee or other party liable therefor, is released, impaired or lost, will render this insurance null and void, but Your right to retain or recover the premium will not be affected. We are not liable for any loss or damage which, without Our written consent, has been settled or compromised by You.

You may, without prejudice to this insurance, accept the ordinary bills of lading or shipping receipts issued by carriers limiting their liability to less than the actual value.

4. NO BENEFIT TO BAILEE

You warrant that this policy will in no way be used directly or indirectly to the benefit of any carrier or other bailee for hire.

5. INSURANCE UNDER MORE THAN ONE PART

In the event of loss or damage to property covered under the terms of this policy, We will not, under any circumstances, be liable for more than the actual loss sustained by You, even though more than one Part applies to such loss.

6. PROPERTY OF OTHERS

At Our option, any loss may be paid to You or adjusted with and paid to the customer or the owner of the property.

7. OTHER INSURANCE

We will not be liable if, at the time of loss or damage, there is any other insurance that would attach in absence of this insurance; except that this insurance shall apply only as excess over any other valid and collectible insurance and in no event as contributing insurance, and then only after all other insurance has been exhausted.

8. SUBROGATION

Upon making any payment or assuming liability under this policy, We shall be subrogated to all rights of Your recovery against others and may bring action to enforce such rights. Notwithstanding the foregoing and unless otherwise stated, all rights of subrogation are hereby waived against any corporation, firm, individual or other interest with respect to which insurance is provided by this policy.

Where the net amount recovered, after deducting the costs of recovery, is not sufficient to provide a complete indemnity for the loss or damage suffered, that amount shall be divided between Us and You in the proportion in which the loss or damage has been borne by each respectively.

Any release from liability entered into by You prior to loss shall not affect Our right to recover.

9. DEDUCTIBLE CLAUSE

For the purposes of this policy:

- a. We are liable for the amount by which the loss or damage, including any business income or interruption loss, caused by any of the perils insured against exceeds the amount of the deductible specified on the Declarations Page in any one occurrence, for each location and each item in the applicable Schedule of Insured Property.
- b. Unless stated otherwise, if two or more deductibles (or waiting periods) apply to an occurrence at a location, the total deducted will not exceed the largest applicable deductible (or longest single waiting period).
- c. If separate property damage and business interruption loss deductibles or waiting periods are stated on the Declarations Page or elsewhere in this policy, then the deductibles or waiting periods shall apply separately.
- d. If a percentage deductible is specified on the Declarations Page or elsewhere in this policy, the amount of the deductible shall be that percentage of the total insured values for each location separately as specified on Declarations Page, or per the location value on the Statement of Values where one is relied upon, and each item in the applicable Schedule of Insured Property. However, if both an amount and a percentage are specified on the Declarations Page whichever deductible is greater shall apply.
- e. If a waiting period deductible is specified on the Declarations Page, Our liability for each interruption of business resulting from covered direct physical loss begins only when the period of interruption exceeds the number of consecutive hours as specified on the Declarations Page and We are liable only for that part of the loss in excess of the number of hours specified on the Declarations Page.

10. PREVENTION OF LOSS

You, Your employees, partners, directors and officers will employ their best efforts to take all reasonable precautions to prevent accidents or losses and prevent or cease any activity which may give rise to loss or damage and shall take all reasonable steps to observe and comply with all statutory or local laws, obligations and requirements.

11. NOTICE TO AUTHORITIES

Where the loss is or is suspected to be due to malicious acts, burglary, robbery, theft or attempt thereof, You shall give immediate notice to the police or other authorities having jurisdiction.

12. VERIFICATION OF VALUES

We or Our duly authorized representative shall be permitted at all reasonable times during the term of the policy or within three years after termination or expiration of the policy to:

- a. inspect the premises and the receptacles in which the records of accounts receivable are kept by You;
- b. examine and audit Your books, records and such policies as relate to any property insured hereunder;
- c. verify statements of any outstanding record of accounts receivable submitted by You and the amount of recoveries of accounts receivable on which the Insurer has made any settlement.

Such inspection or examination shall not waive nor in any manner affect any of the terms or conditions of this Form.

13. PREMIUM ADJUSTMENT

If any part of the premium of this policy is based on estimates furnished by You, You shall keep an accurate record containing all relative particulars, including but not limited to stock values, equipment values, sales records, and shall allow Us to inspect such record. You shall supply such particulars as We may require within one month from the expiry of each Period of Insurance and the premium shall thereupon be adjusted by Us, subject to any minimum premium that may apply. At Our request You shall supply an auditor's certificate in support of such particulars.

14. LIMITS OF INSURANCE

For the purposes of this policy:

- a. Our liability for any amount payable under this policy resulting from any one occurrence (including all defence costs) shall not exceed the Limits of Insurance or any applicable sub-limits, as stated on the Declarations Page, for each applicable part, section, item or coverage.
- b. Unless otherwise stated in the policy, any sub-limits of liability are included within and are not in addition to the Limits of Insurance as stated on the Declarations Page.
- c. Where a Policy Limit of Loss is stated on the Declarations Page or elsewhere within this policy, Our liability for any amount payable under this policy in any one occurrence, including any Business Income or interruption loss, shall not exceed the Policy Limit of Loss as stated. This applies whether the policy is written on a scheduled limits basis or blanket limits basis.
- d. An aggregate limit, when applicable as stated on the Declarations Page or elsewhere within this policy, is the most We will pay during the policy period for the corresponding coverage regardless of the number of occurrences.
- e. Limits of Insurance, or any applicable sub-limit, shall be exclusive of the applicable deductible as shown in the Declarations Page for the applicable Policy Period.
- f. Unless otherwise stated in the policy, where property is described as being scheduled, the limit shown opposite each item in the applicable Schedule of Insured Property is the maximum amount We are liable to pay in respect of any loss or damage to that property in any one occurrence.

15. REINSTATEMENT

Unless otherwise stated in this policy, loss under this policy shall not reduce the applicable amount of insurance.

16. COVERAGE TERRITORY

This insurance applies to occurrences anywhere in Canada and the contiguous United States of America.

17. PAIR, SETS OR PARTS

- a. Pair and Set

Subject to the provisions of this policy, in the case of loss to each such article or articles, whether scheduled or unscheduled, which are a part of a set, the measure of loss will be a reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the set, but in no event will loss be construed to mean total loss of set.

- b. Parts

In the case of loss to any part of the insured property, whether scheduled or unscheduled, consisting, when complete for use, of several parts, We are not liable for more than the insured value of the part lost or damaged, including the cost of installation.
